Pastor's Meditation

This month, I defer to the prophetic voice of one of our denomination's leaders. Please let Dr. Haggray's message, below, speak to your heart and mind. In Christ, Pastor Steve

On the mass shooting in Buffalo, New York

By Dr. Jeffrey Haggray, Executive Director,

American Baptist Home Mission Societies

VALLEY FORGE, PA (5/17/22)—The American Baptist Home Mission Societies (ABHMS) expresses heartfelt condolences to the victims and family members of those slain during a brazen act of racially motivated violence on May 14, 2022, in Buffalo, New York. We stand in solidarity with the people of Buffalo, while praying for comfort on the part of all those stricken by grief due to this massacre.

In addition to condemning racially motivated violence with the utmost vehemence, ABHMS deplores the race-based ideologies that threaten Black people and other people of color, and all violence motivated by ethnicity, religious identity or gender-based hatred. ABHMS offers humanitarian support to our neighbors in Buffalo and beyond, while recognizing that the carnage at the Tops Store is symptomatic of the virulent and rapidly increasing threat of white supremacist ideology in America.

Thirteen people, ranging in age from 20 to 86, were shot. Ten of them died. Eleven victims were Black, two were white. The shooter, Payton S. Gendron, a white man in his late teens, drove three-and-a-half hours from his home in Conklin, New York, to zip code 14208. According to census data, the population there is 78% Black, representing the highest percentage of Black people in Upstate New York.

A manifesto authored by the shooter confirms his plan—he yearned to kill Black people. Motivated by a racist belief that the increasing numbers of people of color in America are a threat to white people, he expressed intent to continue his rampage at “another large superstore” after leaving the Tops Store in Buffalo.

Such racist ideology has long existed in America, and it fuels efforts on the part of some to instigate civil war between white people and people of color, as witnessed on June 17, 2015, when an admitted white supremacist slaughtered nine Black churchgoers at Mother Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal in Charleston, SC.

ABHMS believes that all people are made in the image of God and are entitled to peace, dignity and safety—whether traveling to the store, attending worship, engaging in fellowship with friends and family, or simply enjoying life—without being subjected to acts of violence by white supremacists.

We call upon American Baptists and other partners in mission to join us in boldly condemning racially motivated violence—and to do so from our houses of worship and in the public square—while extending material support and comfort to those who have been victimized, and to pray that God will move upon the hearts and minds of those who are inclined to harm others to turn from their wicked ways.

- Jeff Phillips has been evaluating the lighting in Fellowship Hall. For a while we have had issues with light bulbs blowing out, some rows of lights not coming on and the general lighting is not bright enough. Jeff's investigation has indicated that we have installed several different types of light bulbs; some are not dimmable while others are not meant to be in an enclosed fixture. We also recently learned that LED bulbs are not compatible with our 1965 rheostat dimmer control. A number of years ago we converted the Education Building to LED bulbs through an energy program sponsored by RG&E.

Jeff is currently getting quotes to replace our current rheostat to a new, more current system which would be LED compatible. Jeff has located a source of replacement bulbs that are correctly configured. Fellowship Hall has 30 ceiling fixtures, each housing two bulbs. This topic will be discussed at the July Trustee's meeting.

- Summer is officially here! The Trustees want to remind you that our sanctuary is air conditioned and the temperature is comfortable during the worship service. We want to invite you, if you feel comfortable, to join us each Sunday, in person, in the sanctuary.

Respectfully,

Don Fox, Fritz May, Jack O'Brien, Mike Pray,
Sarah Phillips, David Trump

Missions Report

In June the Missions Team presented the America for Christ offering for American Baptist Home Mission Societies (ABHMS) - the domestic mission arm of American Baptist Churches-USA.

In coordination with Pastor Steve's Meditation on page one, and in response to the written plea of Dr. Jeffrey Haggray, ABHMS, the Missions Team will be extending $1,000 of "...material support and comfort to those who have been victimized" in the racially-motivated massacre in Buffalo on May 14, 2022. We are presently confirming the best way to donate these funds so that they might be already on the way to help by the time you read this.

Locally this summer we will be supporting Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School, the Penfield Ecumenical Food Shelf, and Penfield Hope. These organizations have had ties to our congregation for years. Our prayer is always that the donations we offer do help to bring hope, dignity, safety and peace to the people in need.

Please join us in that prayer,

Sue, Ellen, Janette
